More Options for Special Needs Residents in Austin

Austin, Texas–area special-needs and very-low-income residents have more options when it comes to affordable housing, thanks to a $500,000 Affordable Housing Program grant from Frost Bank and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas (FHLB Dallas) in 2008. The grant allowed the Mary Lee Foundation to triple its capacity, aiding in the construction of 64 apartment units for very-low-income and special-needs residents.

“I am deeply appreciative to the FHLB Dallas, Frost Bank and all of the funders who helped make it possible for the Mary Lee community to triple the number of people served at the Willows location,” says Charlene Crump, executive director and founder of the Mary Lee Foundation, which serves individuals with special needs through diverse programs, such as providing affordable housing, transitional living services, a food pantry and long-term-care services.
